Joseph: Where are you from Kora?

Kora: I am from New Hampshire.

Joseph: New Hampshire? Where is that exactly?

Kora: It is in the northeast of the United States of America.

Joseph: Wow! It is daytime there and here in Italy it is night.

Kora: Yes, you are six hours in front of us.

Joseph: What is the weather like in New Hampshire?

Kora: We have four seasons. Winter, spring, summer and fall. We are in late fall. We will soon go into winter.

Joseph: brrr. I bet it is cold in winter!!! I know in November there is a famous holiday in the United States. What is it?

Kora: It is Thanksgiving.

Joseph: Thanksgiving. Hmmm. What day is it?

Kora: It is November 26.

Joseph: November 26 - is it always on that date?

Kora: No, the actual date is different every year.

Fun Fact: Thanksgiving is the fourth Thursday of November.

Thanksgiving student interview:

Joseph: Interesting. What do you do on Thanksgiving?

Kora: Family and friends gather to celebrate their blessings with a large feast like the Native Americans and Pilgrims did.

Joseph: That sounds like a lot of food!

Kora: We have turkey with gravy, potatoes, stuffing and lots of vegetables. We also eat lots of pie.

Joseph: Do you travel, too? I see lots of families travel on Thanksgiving.

Kora: I do not travel, but lots of families do travel.

Joseph: Is it true that the president of the United States pardons a turkey?

Kora: Yes, it is. One turkey each year.

Joseph: What about parades? Sometimes there are big parades on tv, right?

Kora: There is a large parade in New York City. It is called the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

blessing = benedizione; buona fortuna

Kora: I am thankful for my entire family, all of my friends, the opportunity to go to school and my house.
